SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

60

It was a nervous day in September in 1956 for twenty Freshmen who came timidly through the doors of old Hoyt High. Even though the building was familiar to us, the Seniors helped us find our way around. The happy group consisted of Danny Rickel, Marvin McKinley, Patty Doud, Joe Mattwaoshshe, Wilma Cox, Steve Hojackni, Gary Salts, Kenneth Rosevelt, Myron Stithem, Glenda Jones, Bill Holt, Beth Carey, Karen Reddick, Bill Grant, Glen Everhart, Bill Fleischer, Gerri Lue Gooderl, and class officers: Marcia Joy, President; Gerald Albright, Vice-President; Joan Dickinson, Secretary; Mary Younger, Treasurer; and Marlene Donahue, Reporter. This year Mr. Brown was our sponsor. Gerri Lue and Mary were chosen from our class as cheerleaders.

A more ambitious group entered the doors of Hoyt High School for the Sophomore year. We were happy to have Marvin back and a new student, Thorton Flowers. We chose for our class officers this year: Marlene Donahue, President; Bill Fleischer, Vice-President; Gary Salts, Secretary; Joan Dickinson, Treasurer; Marcia Joy, Reporter; and Mary Younger, Student Council Representative. Our sponsor was Mrs. Cockerill. The biggest event of our Sophomore year was when Joan and Mary were chosen for Homecoming Attendants. Mary was also chosen for F. F. A. Sweetheart Attendant.

Starting into our Junior year we find that Thorton Flowers and Wilma Cox are no longer with us. We found that we had gained Marilyn Southard from Seaman. Our efficers for this year were: Joan Dickinson, President; Marlene Donahue, Vice-President; Karen Reddick, Secretary; Marilyn Southard, Treasurer; Gary Salts, Reporter; and Bill Fleischer and Glenda Jones as Student Council Representatives. The highlights of our Junior year were the Junior play, "Amazing Gracie"; Junior-Senior Banquet; two Homecoming Attendants, Marilyn and Beth, who were also cheerleaders. Our sponsor for the year was Mrs. Sadler.

When we returned for our Senior year in 159, we found that we had lost Glenda Jones but had gained Bob Alfrey, Sharon Heath, Jack Armstrong, and Kenneth Rosevelt. To conclude the final year we chose our officers as: Mary Younger, President; Marlene Donahue, Vice-President; Marilyn Southard, Secretary; Joan Dickinson, Treasurer; Marcia Joy, Reporter; and for Student Council Representatives, Marcia and Gary. The many highlights of this year included the Senior Play, Junior-Senior Banquet, Senior trip to Rockaway Beach, and best of all was Graduation. Also we were privileged to have the Homecoming King and Queen selected from our class. They were Marilyn Southard and Glen Everhart. Our sponsors were Mr. Bontrager and Mrs. Waller.

It is now the year 1980. We decided to take a journey around the world and peek into the lives of our 1960 Seniors and see how successful they have been.

It seems only one member of the class remain in Hoyt. She is Sharon Heath. It seems she is putting her nurses training to work on her bakers dozen consisting of 6 boys and 7 girls.

As we journey on down into Arkansas we find Joe Mattwaoshshe, happy and content, making grain alcohol in his still in the heart of Arkansas. He is also president of the Alcoholics Anonymous Club. Is it hurting your business Joe?

Bill Fleischer, now a world famous chef has his own television show in New York City. He is teaching housewives how to prepare "Shishkabob", one of his famous dishes.

As we approach Broadway in New York, we find Joan Dickinson staring in a great Musical entitled "Billy the Kid". She seems very pleased at being such a success on Broadway.

We boarded a plane and buzzed up to Greenland where we found Gerri Lue Gooderl as the head of a big Tomato Juice Factory. She squeezes 50 million quarts of juice a day. "Happy squeezing".

Next, we buzzed to Monaco. We found Mary Younger (Holt) as the distinguished hair dresser of Princess Grace. Good work Mary!

Now we are gliding over the Sahara Desert and whom do we see besides Jack Armstrong lying in the sand trying to get a suntan, by using "moonshine" for tanning lotion.

We travel down to the middle of Africa where we find Myron Stithem in the Belgian Congo working for the Ape's Gazette. He is the editor of the lovelorns column. I wonder how it feels to be playing cupid?

While leaving Africa, we saw a clearing in the heart of the jungle. Gary "Log" Salts was teaching monkeys the rock'n roll beat, with his Bango Drums.

When arriving in Arabia, who welcomed us but Bob Alfrey, an oil tycoon. He has his own harem, and a herd of 30 camels, one for each wife.

As we sweep down over the China plains, we find Kenneth Rosevelt in China painting a portrait of Chong Kai Chong'e. His next adventure will be to paint a portrait of the President of Saturn, Bridgette Bardot. What an adventure!

We stopped in Mongolia only to find Glen Everhart. It seems he is producing his own "Ford" space rocket TB-176209. He buzzes around the world once a day.

In a town 30 miles away we find Danny Rickel producing a new style of "Chevy" space rocket called the "Beth Everhart Special". He and Glen have a drag race every morning, still trying to prove which is best. Who's winning, boys?

We boarded a pink submarine and move on to Australia, where we find Marlene Donahue with her basketball team the Crazy-Legs Five. They are preparing to tour the planets. Next they are scheduled to play the moon women. Good luck, girls!!!

Next, we chartered a jet and zoomed down to the Antarctica, and who did we find but Corky Albright. It seems he is attempting to both farm and invent. He's working on his newest invention, "The Do-It-Yourself Snow-Melter!!

Arriving in Hawaii we find Beth Carey (Fenske). Beth is now a famous Hula Dancer and in her spare time helps Larry manage the Coca-Monga Night Club.

We journey to Juneau, Alaska only to find Marvin McKinley running a Pharmacy. He is trying to invent a wonder-drug to beautify the Eskimos. Also in Alaska we find Marcia Joy, what a coincidence. It seems she runs an Igloo Music School. She is teaching the Eskimos how to sing the vocal scale.

Coming down through Hollywood we find Marilyn Southard and her movie-star husband Onion Head (Andy Griffin). They are raising their own little onion heads on their 1,000 acre chicken farm. Happy hatching season!

Traveling into the heart of Hollywood we find Karen Reddick. She is a private secretary to her lifelong dreamboat, Cary Grant.

We skip across the country to Cape Canaveral, Florida where, we find Bill Grant preparing to blast off to the moon to continue work in his diamond mine. He says Glenda now has a diamond ring for each finger.

Next, we float to Havanna, Cuba, where we find Bill Holt working to as a trumpet player of a well known orchestra the Butter-Finger Congo.

Who do we see on the piano but Liberace and that youngster Jack Benny playing the violin with the world's best-loved director our own Mr.

Barry.

Last, but not least, we find Patty Doud in the Panamonian Swamps. She seems very pleased with her job of nursing charmed alligators and pet chimpazes. One of her prized chimpazes will soon take his space ship to the moon.

We were so glad to find the Seniors of '60 all well and happy. Also we were glad they were putting their many talents to such good use.

WILL

- I, Marlene Donahue, do will and bequeath my lousy typewriter, which doesn't type, to Sue Salts, because I know it will make her as mad as it did me. To my cousin Sandy, I leave my ability to be 15 minutes late every morning, and finally to Miss Steenbock I leave my apologies for being such a demon in Shorthand class. I hope for her sake, she doesn't have anybody like me next year.
- I, Mary Younger, do will and bequeath my ability to make As in History to the Junior boys provided they try a little harder, and my struggles to put out the school paper to the editor of the paper next year, provided it is Sue Salts.
- I, Marilyn Southard, do will and bequeath my many fights with Bill Fleischer to my sister Janet. To Glenda Anderson, I leave all my morning walks, provided she refuses all rides, like we never did. To Jim Albright I leave my sense of direction, providing he uses it to keep himself from getting lost.
- I, Danny Rickel, do will and bequeath my wolfish ways to Charles Bailey, to Barbara Meggison I leave my ability to party, party! And last but not least, I leave my football equipment to "Baby Bear" if he doesn't tear it up.
- I, Patty Doud, do will and bequeath my height to Bill Williams, providing he grows some, and my Chemistry book to Celeste Fuller.
- I, Gary Salts, do will and bequeath my height to "Baby Bear", my nickname to James Rose, my seemingly natural ability to never have a date to Elmer Hubener, and the fun of being a Senior to the Juniors.
- I, Glen Everhart, do will and bequeath my '55 Ford to my sister, Beth; my nickname to Bill Hubener, and my long hair to Jerry Grant.
- I, Kenny Rosevelt, do will and bequeath my ability to keep my hair combed to Elmer Hubener, and all my good times and ability to mess around continually to Celeste Fuller.
- I, Corkey Albright, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with Catherine Hill to Jim Albright and Bill Barger, my ability to ride the bench in sports to Frank Kopp, and my small amount of knowledge to Darrel Albright.
- I, Myron Stithem, do will and bequeath my many dates to Charles Bailey provided he is always home by 12:00, and my ability to play football to Gary Stadel, providing he makes the All-Star team, and my study hall desk to Mr. Leezy, providing he doesn't write on it.
- I, Marcia Joy, do will and bequeath my excess weight to Beverly Bostwick and my many music lessons to Eva May provided she uses them to a good advantage.
- I, Jack Armstrong, do will and bequeath my many hours of loafing in class to my brother Jim, and my ability to rod my Ford to Linda Osborne.
- I, Bill Holt, do will and bequeath my "Hot Cornet" to Jerry Grant, if he promises to play only jazz, and my long hair to him also because he needs both.

- I, Gerri Lue Gooderl, do will and bequeath my driving ability to Catherine Hill, and my purse to all the boys that have been trying to get into it for the past four years.
- I, Sharon Heath, do will and bequeath my ability to write a letter everyday to Catherine Hill, my ability while driving to run every car off the road to Beth Everhart, my ability to forget my shoes to Glenda Anderson, and finally I will my wonderful ability for getting into trouble to Dawn Spencer, Beverly Bostwick, Janet Southard, and all the members of the Freedom-Lover's Club.
- I, Joan Dickinson, do will and bequeath my Bookkeeping book to Bill Barger as long as he learns to juggle the figures. Also my job of playing for Boys Glee Club to anyone brave enough to take it.
- I, Marvin McKinley, do will and bequeath my center position on the football team to Frank Kopp, and my bookkeeping ability to Jeff Williams, providing he uses it properly.
- I, Beth Carey, do will and bequeath my placid disposition to Sue Salts provided she use it always on Catherine Hill, my position as flute soloist for the band to Dawn Spencer and my ability to cheerlead to Sandra Donahue, if she promises to wear a page boy coiffure.
- I, Bill Fleischer, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with Miss Steenbock in Bookkeeping to any poor thing in her class, and my ability to eat in 3rd hour study hall to Janet, providing she doesn't get fat.
- I, Karen Reddick, de will and bequeath my ability in gym class to Linda Osborne, so she might have as much fun as I have, all my meaness and my four wonderful years of high school to the Freshman girls that they might be just as ornery and have just as much fun their remaining three years.
- I, Joe Mattwaoshshe, do will and bequeath my many adventures in Kansas City to Don Nioce, provided he is a little more cautious than I was, and to Virgil Bowden I leave my Ford, that is, if he will take just as good care of it as I always have.
